NO DISORDER AT FORD.

AUTO PLANT IN DETROIT Detroit, Mich. Jan. 2.—Officials of the Ford Motor company had taken no official notice today of a hand bill circulated Sunday by a number of the concern's employes asking that the company permit the workers to use the Ford plant, now closed, for inventory, to be used temporarly for making cars for their own the. No formal request had been made to the company for use of the company for making cars.

that the Ford employes had declared se-vict control and and assumed operation of the plant. When 58,000 workers ap-peared at the Highland Park plant this morning to receive their pay checks the report was spread that they were storm-ing the plant. But one policeman was on duty in the vicinity of the factory and there was no disorder, the police announc-ed.
